Proclamation for Disability Awareness Month - 2013

WHEREAS; Wisconsin recognizes the importance of increasing public awareness and respect for persons with disabilities and informing the public about the many contributions to their communities and emphasizing the abilities of disabled persons;

WHEREAS; the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 was enacted to end disability-based discrimination, and to promote inclusion, full participation, economic self-sufficiency and equality of opportunity for all people with disabilities;

WHEREAS; since 1988, October has been celebrated as National Disability Employment Awareness Month, the theme for 2013 is "Because We Are EQUAL to the Task";

WHEREAS; workplaces welcoming the talents of all people, including people with disabilities, are a critical part of our efforts to build an inclusive community and strong economy;

WHEREAS; Wisconsin recognizes the skills that people with disabilities bring to our workforce, and is committed to improving employment opportunities for people with disabilities in both the public and private sectors;

WHEREAS; Wisconsin knows that employees working in integrated jobs make more financial contributions to their communities, use fewer public benefits, and experience better health outcomes;

WHEREAS; employing people with disabilities is good for business, as evidenced by national polls showing nearly 90% of the public report they support businesses that hire people with disabilities;

WHEREAS; people with disabilities are capable and willing to work at competitive wage jobs with the right supports and job fit;

WHEREAS; by celebrating the abilities and contributions of individuals with disabilities we enrich the communities of Wisconsin;

NOW, THEREFORE, the Wisconsin state legislature does hereby proclaim October 2013 as

Disability Awareness Month

throughout the State of Wisconsin, and urge all Wisconsinites to explore the possibilities of offering mentoring, internships, and employment to people with disabilities, whose many gifts and talents contribute to our state.
